Michelle's Law Notice

When a dependent child over the age of 26 loses student status under the eligibility policy of group health plan coverage, as a result of a medically necessary leave of absence from a post-secondary educational institution, the group health plan will continue to provide coverage during the leave of absence for the earlier end date of up to one year, or until coverage would otherwise terminate under the group health plan.

To maintain eligibility and continue coverage as a dependent during such leave of absence:

- The must receive written certification by a treating physician of the dependent child which states that the child is suffering from a serious illness or injury and that the leave of absence (or other change of enrollment) is medically necessary; and
- The dependent must be established as a disabled dependent as defined by the medical carriers.
