

ZOLL Medical Corporation
Employee Savings Plan

Invest in your retirement—and yourself—today, with help from the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan and Fidelity.

YOUR GUIDE TO GETTING STARTED

Invest some of what you earn today for what you plan to accomplish tomorrow.

ZOLL Medical Corporation is offering you the opportunity to help you save money for your future through the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan. The Plan provides an easy and convenient way to set money aside for retirement on a pretax or Roth basis and provides a number of advantages over a traditional savings plan. If you have not enrolled in the Plan prior to your eligibility date, you will be automatically enrolled at 4% unless you choose otherwise. Please see the "Frequently asked questions about your plan" section of this Enrollment Guide for more information about the enrollment process.

Benefit from:

Matching contributions. Your Employer helps your contributions grow through an Employer matching contribution—it's like getting "free" money. That's why it makes good financial sense to take advantage of this great benefit today!

Roth contributions. Tax-advantage savings opportunities. A Roth contribution to your retirement savings plan allows you to make after-tax contributions to your retirement savings plan and take any associated earnings completely tax free at retirement - as long as the distribution is a qualified one.

Convenience. Your contributions are automatically deducted regularly from your paycheck.

Tax savings now. Your pretax contributions are deducted from your pay before income taxes are taken out. This means that you can actually lower the amount of current income taxes you pay each period. It could mean more money in your take-home pay versus saving money in a taxable account.

Tax-deferred savings opportunities. You pay no taxes on any pretax earnings until you withdraw them from your account, enabling you to keep more of your money working for you now.

Portability. You can roll over eligible savings from a previous employer into this Plan. You can also take your plan vested account balance with you if you leave the company.

Investment options. You have the flexibility to select from investment options that range from more conservative to more aggressive, making it easy for you to develop a well-diversified investment portfolio.

Automatic annual increases. Save a little more each year, the easy way — the Annual Increase Program automatically increases your contribution each year.

Online beneficiary. With Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service, you can designate your beneficiaries, receive instant online confirmation, and check your beneficiary information virtually any time.

Catch-up contributions. If you make the maximum contribution to your plan account, and you are 50 years of age or older during the calendar year, you can make an additional catch-up contribution of $7,500 in 2023.

To learn more about what your plan offers, see "Frequently asked questions about your plan" later in this guide.

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the Plan?

You are eligible to make deferrals to the Plan on the first of the month following three months of service provided you are at least 21 years old. The Plan does not cover employees who are residents of Puerto Rico.

Note: you can elect your contribution amount no sooner than 30 days prior to your eligibility date.

If you have not enrolled in, or opted out of the Plan prior to your eligibility date, you will automatically be enrolled in the Plan at a contribution rate of 4% which will be deducted from your paycheck on a pretax basis. You will also be enrolled in the Plan's Annual Increase Program. Based on plan rules, your contributions will increase each year by 1% up to 7% beginning each year on June 1st, unless you elect otherwise.

Based on your date of birth and assuming a retirement age of 65, you will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Fund - Class K, with a corresponding target retirement date. Target Date Funds are an asset mix of stocks, bonds and other investments that automatically becomes more conservative as the fund approaches its target retirement date and beyond. Principal invested is not guaranteed.

We encourage you to take an active role in the Plan and to choose a contribution rate and investment options that are appropriate for you. If you choose to contribute an amount other than 4%, choose to contribute to another investment option or if you choose not to contribute at all, you must contact Fidelity at 1-800-835-5095 or go online.

How do I enroll in the Plan?

Enroll online at any time, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-835-5095.

Note: you must have met eligibility requirements before you can enroll.

What is the Roth contribution option?

A Roth contribution to your retirement savings plan allows you to make after-tax contributions and take any associated earnings completely tax free at retirement - as long as the distribution is a qualified one. A qualified distribution, in this case, is one that is taken at least five tax years after your first Roth 401(k) contribution and after you have attained age 59½, or become disabled or die. Through automatic payroll deduction, you can contribute between 1% and 60% of your eligible pay as designated Roth contributions, up to the annual IRS dollar limits.

Find more information online within the "Learn" section of NetBenefits®.

How much can I contribute?

Through automatic payroll deduction, you may contribute up to 60% of your eligible pay on a pretax or Roth basis. If you are eligible for catch-up contributions (Age 50 or over), and have met the IRS limit, you can contribute up to 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax or Roth basis. In addition, you can automatically increase your retirement savings plan contributions each year through the Annual Increase Program. Employees determined to be highly compensated may have additional limitations. Sign up online by accessing the "Contribution Amount" section on NetBenefits®, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-835-5095.

What is the IRS contribution limit?

If you are under age 50, the IRS contribution limit for 2023 is $22,500. If you will be at least age 50 during the year, your plan may allow you to defer an additional $7,500 as catch-up contributions.

Does the organization contribute to my account?

ZOLL Medical Corporation helps your retirement savings grow by matching your contributions.

ZOLL Medical Corporation will match 100% of the first 4% of pay you contribute, and 50% of the next 3% of your pretax contributions to your plan.

How do I designate my beneficiary?

If you have not already selected your beneficiaries, or if you have experienced a life-changing event such as a marriage, divorce, birth of a child, or a death in the family, it's time to consider your beneficiary designations. Fidelity's Online Beneficiaries Service offers a straightforward, convenient process that takes just minutes. To make your elections, click on the "Profile" link, then select "Beneficiaries" and follow the online instructions.

What are my investment options?

To help you meet your investment goals, the Plan offers you a range of options. You can select a mix of investment options that best suits your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. The many investment options available through the Plan include conservative, moderately conservative, and aggressive funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online.

What if I don't make an investment election?

We encourage you to take an active role in the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan and choose investment options that best suit your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. If you do not select specific investment options in the Plan, your contributions will be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Fund - Class K with the target retirement date closest to the year you might retire, based on your current age and assuming a retirement age of 65, at the direction of ZOLL Medical Corporation.

If no date of birth or an invalid date of birth is on file at Fidelity, your contributions may be invested in the Fidelity Freedom® Income Fund Class K. More information about the Fidelity Freedom® Fund - Class K options can be found online.

Target Date Funds are an asset mix of stocks, bonds and other investments that automatically becomes more conservative as the fund approaches its target retirement date and beyond. Principal invested is not guaranteed.

What catch-up contribution can I make?

If you have reached age 50 or will reach 50 during the calendar year January 1 – December 31 and are making the maximum plan or IRS contribution, you may make an additional catch-up contribution each pay period. The maximum annual catch-up contribution is $7,500. Going forward, catch-up contribution limits will be subject to cost of living adjustments (COLAs) in $500 increments.

When am I vested?

You are always 100% vested in your own contributions to the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan, as well as any earnings on them. ZOLL Medical Corporation's matching contributions and any earnings vest according to the following schedule:

Years of Employment Vesting %

Years 0-2	0%
Years 2-3	20%
Years 3-4	40%
Years 4-5	60%
Years 5-6	80%
Years 6-7	100%

Can I take a loan from my account?

Although your plan account is intended for the future, you may borrow from your account for any reason.

Learn more about and/or request a loan online, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-835-5095.

Can I make withdrawals?

Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted when you terminate your employment, retire, reach age 59½, become permanently disabled, have severe financial hardship, as defined by your plan.

When you leave the ZOLL Medical Corporation, you can withdraw contributions and any associated earnings or, if your vested account balance is greater than $5,000, you can leave contributions and any associated earnings in the Plan. After you leave the ZOLL Medical Corporation, if your vested account balance is equal to or less than $1,000, it will automatically be distributed to you. However, if your vested account balance is greater than $1,000 but not more than $5,000, you will be notified that your entire vested account balance will be transferred to an Individual Retirement Account (Rollover IRA), unless you request either a cash distribution or a rollover distribution of your choice.

Learn more about and/or request a withdrawal online, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-835-5095.

Can I move money from another retirement plan into my account in the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan?

You are permitted to roll over eligible pretax contributions from another 401(k) plan, Roth

401(k) plan, 401(a) plan, 403(b) plan, Roth 403(b) plan or a governmental 457(b) retirement plan account or eligible pretax contributions from conduit individual retirement accounts (IRAs). A conduit IRA is one that contains only money rolled over from an employer-sponsored retirement plan that has not been mixed with regular IRA contributions.

Additional information can be obtained online, or by calling the Fidelity Retirement Benefits Line at 1-800-835-5095.

Be sure to consider all your available options and the applicable fees and features of each before moving your retirement assets.

Target date investments are generally designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each investment's name. The investments are managed to gradually become more conservative over time. The investment risks of each target date investment change over time as its asset allocation changes. They are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high yield, small cap and foreign securities. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after their target dates.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity's analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories and not on the actual investment options and their holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options' Morningstar categories as of 01/31/2023. There may be a number of funds in each category and each may have a significantly different risk profile as compared to other funds within that category as well as compared to funds in other categories on the spectrum. Morningstar categories are based on a fund's style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options' objectives and do not predict the investment options' future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decisions. Investment Options

Before investing in any mutual fund, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Contact Fidelity for a mutual fund prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this information. Read it carefully.

American Century Mid Cap Value Fund R6 Class

VRS Code: 894437

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term capital growth; income is a secondary consideration.

Fund Strategy: Under normal market conditions, the portfolio managers will invest at least 80% of the fund's net assets in medium size companies. The portfolio managers consider medium size companies to include those whose market capitalizations at the time of purchase are within the capitalization range of the Russell 3000[®] Index, excluding the largest 100 such companies.

Fund Risk: Value stocks can perform differently than other types of stocks and can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is comfortable with value-style investments and the potentially greater volatility of investments in smaller companies.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
- The Russell 3000 Index is an unmanaged market capitalization-weighted index that includes the 3,000 largest U.S. companies representing approximately 98 percent of the investable U.S. equity market.
- The analysis on these pages may be based, in part, on adjusted historical returns for periods prior to the class's actual inception of 07/26/2013. These calculated returns reflect the historical performance of the oldest share class of the fund, with an inception date of 03/31/2004, adjusted to reflect the fees and expenses of this share class (when this share class's fees and expenses are higher.) Please refer to a fund's prospectus for information regarding fees and expenses. These adjusted historical returns are not actual returns. Calculation methodologies utilized by Morningstar may differ from those applied by other entities, including the fund itself.

Carillon Eagle Mid Cap Growth Fund Class R5

VRS Code: 889767

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets (plus the amount of any borrowings for investment purposes) in the equity securities of mid-capitalization companies. The fund will invest primarily in the equity securities of companies that the portfolio managers believe have the potential for above-average earnings or sales growth, reasonable valuations and acceptable debt levels.

Fund Risk: Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is willing to accept the generally greater price volatility associated both with growth-oriented stocks and with smaller companies.

Fidelity Freedom® 2005 FundVRS Code: 001312Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund will merge with the Freedom Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of investors. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.Fund Risk: Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. Fidelity Freedom® 2025 Fund

Fund Objective: Seeks high total return until its target retirement date. Thereafter, the fund's objective will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Designed for investors who anticipate retiring in or within a few years of the fund's target retirement year at or around age 65. Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a "neutral" asset allocation strategy that adjusts over time until it reaches an allocation similar to that of the Freedom Income Fund approximately 10 to 19 years after the target year. Ultimately, the fund will merge with the Freedom Income Fund. Fidelity Management & Research Company LLC (the Adviser) may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of investors. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Fund Risk: Investment performance of the Fidelity Freedom Fund products depends on the performance of the underlying investment options and on the proportion of the assets invested in each underlying investment option. The investment risk of each Fidelity Freedom Fund changes over time as its asset allocation changes. These risks are subject to the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments in the U.S. and abroad, and may be subject to risks associated with investing in high-yield, small-cap, commodity-linked and foreign securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option that gradually becomes more conservative over time and who is willing to accept the volatility of the markets.

Fidelity Freedom® Income Fund

VRS Code: 000369

Fund Objective: Seeks high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: Investing in a combination of Fidelity U.S. equity funds, international equity funds, bond funds, and short-term funds (underlying Fidelity funds). Allocating assets among underlying Fidelity funds according to a stable "neutral" asset allocation strategy (approximately 11% in domestic U.S. equity funds, 8% in international equity funds, 43% in U.S. investment grade bond funds, 5% in international bond funds, 3% in long-term treasury bond funds, 20% in inflation-protected bond funds, and 10% in short-term funds) The Adviser may modify the fund's neutral asset allocations from time to time when in the interests of shareholders. Buying and selling futures contracts (both long and short positions) in an effort to manage cash flows efficiently, remain fully invested, or facilitate asset allocation. Through an active asset allocation strategy, the Adviser may increase or decrease asset class exposures relative to the neutral asset allocations by up to 10 percentage points for equity, bond and short-term funds to reflect the Adviser's market outlook, which is primarily focused on the intermediate term.

Fund Risk: The fund is subject to risks resulting from the asset allocation decisions of the Investment Adviser. Pursuant to the Adviser's ability to use an active asset allocation strategy, investors may be subject to a different risk profile compared to the fund's neutral asset allocation strategy shown in its glide path. The fund is subject to the volatility of the financial markets, including that of equity and fixed income investments. Fixed income investments entail issuer default and credit risk, inflation risk, and interest rate risk (as interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall and vice versa). This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Leverage can increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly. No target date fund is considered a complete retirement program and there is no guarantee any single fund will provide sufficient retirement income at or through retirement. Principal invested is not guaranteed at any time, including at or after the funds' target dates.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking an investment option intended for people in retirement and who is willing to accept the volatility of diversified investments in the market.
- Someone who is seeking a diversified mix of stocks, bonds, and short-term investments in one investment option and looking primarily for the potential for income and, secondarily, for share-price appreciation.

Fidelity® 500 Index Fund

VRS Code: 002328

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return (i.e., the combination of capital changes and income) performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in common stocks included in the S&P 500 Index, which broadly represents the performance of common stocks publicly traded in the United States.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is seeking both growth- and value-style investments and who is willing to accept the volatility associated with investing in the stock market.

Footnotes:

- This description is only intended to provide a brief overview of the mutual fund. Read the fund's prospectus for more detailed information about the fund.
 - The S&P 500 Index is a market capitalization-weighted index of 500 common stocks chosen for market size, liquidity, and industry group representation to represent U.S. equity performance.
 - Returns prior to May 4, 2011 are those of the Premium Class and reflect the Premium Class' expense ratio. Had the Institutional Premium Class' expense ratio been reflected, total returns would have been higher.

Fidelity® Contrafund® K6

VRS Code: 002946

Fund Objective: Seeks capital appreciation.

Fidelity® Government Money Market Fund Premium ClassVRS Code: 002741Fund Objective: Seeks as high a level of current income as is consistent with preservation of capital and liquidity.Fund Strategy: The Adviser normally invests at least 99.5% of the fund's total assets in cash, U.S. Government securities and/or repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully (i.e., collateralized by cash or government securities). Certain issuers of U.S. Government securities are sponsored or chartered by Congress but their securities are neither issued nor guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury. Investing in compliance with industry-standard regulatory requirements for money market funds for the quality, maturity, liquidity and diversification of investments. The Adviser stresses maintaining a stable $1.00 share price, liquidity, and income. In addition the Adviser normally invests at least 80% of the fund's assets in U.S. Government securities and repurchase agreements for those securities.Fund Risk: *You could lose money by investing in the fund. Although the fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Fidelity Investments and its affiliates, the fund's sponsor, have no legal obligation to provide financial support to the fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the fund at any time. The fund will not impose a fee upon the sale of your shares, nor temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund's weekly liquid assets fall below 30% of its total assets because of market conditions or other factors. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a money market security to decrease. A decline in the credit quality of an issuer or a provider of credit support or a maturity-shortening structure for a security can cause the price of a money market security to decrease.Fund short term trading fees: NoneWho may want to invest:

- Someone who has a low tolerance for investment risk and who wishes to keep the value of his or her investment relatively stable.
- Someone who is seeking to complement his or her bond and stock fund holdings in order to reach a particular asset allocation.

Fidelity® Mid Cap Index Fund

VRS Code: 002352

Fund Objective: The fund seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of stocks of mid-capitalization United States companies.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in securities included in the Russell Midcap Index. Lending securities to earn income for the fund.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risks than those in larger, more well known companies.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking the potential for long-term share-price appreciation.
- Someone who is seeking both growth- and value-style investments and who is willing to accept the generally greater volatility of investments in smaller companies.

Fidelity® Small Cap Index Fund

VRS Code: 002358

Fund Objective: The fund seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the total return of stocks of small-capitalization United States companies.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in securities included in the Russell 2000 Index. Lending securities to earn income for the fund.

Fund Risk: Stock markets, especially foreign markets, are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, or economic developments. Investments in smaller companies may involve greater risks than those in larger, more well known companies.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Fidelity® Total Bond Fund

VRS Code: 000820

Fund Objective: Seeks a high level of current income.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of assets in debt securities of all types and repurchase agreements for those securities. Using the Bloomberg U.S. Universal Bond Index as a guide in allocating assets across the investment-grade, high yield, and emerging market asset classes. Investing up to 20% of assets in lower-quality debt securities. Managing the fund to have similar overall interest rate risk to the index. Investing in domestic and foreign issuers. Allocating assets across different asset classes, market sectors, and maturities. Analyzing the credit quality of the issuer, the issuer's potential for success, the credit, currency, and economic risks of the security and its issuer, security-specific features, current and potential future valuation, and trading opportunities to select investments. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default), options, and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk, liquidity risk, call risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Lower-quality bonds can be more volatile and have greater risk of default than higher-quality bonds. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks, all of which are magnified in emerging markets. Leverage can increase market exposure and magnify investment risk.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who is seeking potential returns primarily in the form of interest income rather than through an increase in share price.
- Someone who is seeking to diversify an equity portfolio with a more conservative investment option.

Fidelity® U.S. Bond Index Fund

VRS Code: 002326

Fund Objective: Seeks to provide investment results that correspond to the aggregate price and interest performance of the debt securities in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index.

Fund Strategy: Normally investing at least 80% of the fund's assets in bonds included in the Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index. Using statistical sampling techniques based on duration, maturity, interest rate sensitivity, security structure, and credit quality to attempt to replicate the returns of the Index using a smaller number of securities. Engaging in transactions that have a leveraging effect on the fund, including investments in derivatives - such as swaps (interest rate, total return, and credit default) and futures contracts - and forward-settling securities, to adjust the fund's risk exposure. Investing in Fidelity's central funds (specialized investment vehicles used by Fidelity funds to invest in particular security types or investment disciplines).

Fund Risk: In general the bond market is volatile, and fixed income securities carry interest rate risk. (As interest rates rise, bond prices usually fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities.) Fixed income securities also carry inflation risk and credit and default risks for both issuers and counterparties. Unlike individual bonds, most bond funds do not have a maturity date, so avoiding losses caused by price volatility by holding them until maturity is not possible. Foreign securities are subject to interest rate, currency exchange rate, economic, and political risks. The fund can invest in securities that may have a leveraging effect (such as derivatives and forward-settling securities) which may increase market exposure, magnify investment risks, and cause losses to be realized more quickly.

- Duration is a measure of a security's price sensitivity to changes in interest rates. Duration differs from maturity in that it considers a security's interest payments in addition to the amount of time until the security reaches maturity, and also takes into account certain maturity shortening features (e.g., demand features, interest rate resets, and call options) when applicable. Securities with longer durations generally tend to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than securities with shorter durations. A fund with a longer average duration generally can be expected to be more sensitive to interest rate changes than a fund with a shorter average duration.

Galliard Stable Return Fund M

VRS Code: 885383

Fund Objective: The Fund seeks safety of principal and consistency of returns while attempting to maintain minimal volatility. The Fund is designed for investors seeking more income than money market funds without the price fluctuation of stock or bond funds.

Fund Strategy: The Fund's underlying fixed income strategy is managed in a conservative style that utilizes a disciplined value investing process to build a high quality portfolio with broad diversification and an emphasis on risk management. The core investment philosophy is to build a portfolio of realizable yield through bottom-up, fundamental research, utilizing a team-based approach to portfolio management. Galliard's fixed income portfolios emphasize high quality spread sectors, diversification across sectors and issuers to reduce risk, neutral duration positioning, and a laddered portfolio structure for ample natural liquidity.

The majority of the Fund's assets will be invested in fixed income portfolios that are wrapped by stable value contracts which allow Fund participants to transact at book value. The Fund will hold cash in order to maintain sufficient liquidity, and may also invest in traditional GICs. The Fund utilizes high credit quality stable value contract issuers, with an emphasis on diversification.

Fund Risk: The Contracts and securities purchased for the fund are backed solely by the financial resources of the issuers of such Contracts and securities. An investment in the fund is not insured or guaranteed by the manager(s), the plan sponsor, the trustee, the FDIC, or any other government agency. The Contracts purchased by the fund permit the fund to account for the fixed income securities at book value (principal plus interest accrued to date). Through the use of book value accounting, there is no immediate recognition of investment gains and losses on the fund's securities. Instead, gains and losses are recognized over time by periodically adjusting the interest rate credited to the fund under the Contracts. However, while the fund seeks to preserve your principal investment, it is possible to lose money by investing in this fund. The Contracts provide for the payment of certain withdrawals and exchanges at book value during the terms of the Contracts. In order to maintain the Contract issuers' promise to pay such withdrawals and exchanges at book value, the Contracts subject the fund and its participants to certain restrictions. For example, withdrawals prompted by certain events (e.g., layoffs, early retirement windows, spin-offs, sale of a division, facility closings, plan terminations, partial plan terminations, changes in laws or regulations) may be paid at the market value of the fund's securities, which may be less than your book value balance. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Certain investment options offered by your plan (e.g., money market funds, short term bond funds, certain asset allocation/lifecycle funds and brokerage window) may be deemed by the Contract issuers to "compete" with this fund. The terms of the Contracts prohibit you from making a direct exchange from this fund to such competing funds. Instead, you must first exchange to a non-competing fund for 90 days. While these requirements may seem restrictive, they are imposed by the Contract issuers as a condition for the issuer's promise to pay certain withdrawals and exchanges at book value.

Fund short term trading fees: None

Who may want to invest:

- Someone who seeks a slightly higher yield over the long term than is offered by money market funds, but who is willing to accept slightly more investment risk.
- Someone who is interested in balancing an aggressive portfolio with an investment that seeks to provide stability of price.

Goldman Sachs Small Cap Value Fund Investor Class

VRS Code: 872319

Fund Objective: The investment seeks long-term capital appreciation.

Fund Strategy: The fund normally invests at least 80% of its net assets plus any borrowings for investment purposes (measured at the time of purchase) ("net assets") in a diversified portfolio of equity investments in small-cap issuers with public stock market capitalizations within the range of the market capitalization of companies constituting the Russell 2000® Value Index at the time of investment. Although it will invest primarily in publicly traded U.S. securities, including real estate investment trusts, it may also invest in foreign securities.

Fund Risk: The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Value and growth stocks can perform differently from other types of stocks. Growth stocks can be more volatile. Value stocks can continue to be undervalued by the market for long periods of time. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Additional risk information for this product may be found in the prospectus or other product materials, if available.

Neuberger Berman Genesis Fund Trust Class

VRS Code: 899906

Fund Objective: The investment seeks growth of capital.

Fund Strategy: The fund invests mainly in common stocks of small-capitalization companies, which it defines as those with a total market capitalization within the market capitalization range of companies in the Russell 2000[®] Index at the time of initial purchase. It may continue to hold or add to a position in a company after its market capitalization has moved outside the range of the Russell 2000[®] Index. The fund seeks to reduce risk by diversifying among many companies and industries.

Fund Risk: The securities of smaller, less well-known companies can be more volatile than those of larger companies. Growth stocks can perform differently from the market as a whole and can be more volatile than other types of stocks. Stock markets are volatile and can decline significantly in response to adverse issuer, political, regulatory, market, economic or other developments. These risks may be magnified in foreign markets. Step up your contributions with the Annual Increase Program.

Help boost your contribution amount automatically: The Annual Increase Program allows you to increase your retirement savings plan contributions automatically each year. It's an easy way to help keep yourself on track as you get closer to retirement.

ACTION PLAN

- Review the details of the Annual Increase Program
- Choose the amount and date of your annual increase

How does the Annual Increase Program work?

Choose the amount and date for your annual increase, and the rest is automatic. Each year on the designated date, your contributions will increase by the amount you elected.

How does the Annual Increase Program benefit me?

Small increases in your contributions can lead to significant benefits in retirement. When you enroll in the Annual Increase Program, you may help ensure a step up in your retirement plan account contributions each year. This means more opportunity for your savings to grow. It can help you save more but feel less of an impact in your take-home pay.

How do I enroll?

To make your plan's Annual Increase Program part of your retirement saving strategy, log on to NetBenefits® or call your plan's toll-free number to choose the amount and select the date for your annual increase.

What amount and date should I choose for my annual increase?

Choose an annual increase of 1% or 2% and time it to coincide with your annual review or pay increase. The system follows through by automatically increasing your contribution on your selected date each year.

What if I need to make changes or withdraw?

You can change or withdraw from the program at any time by calling your plan's toll-free number or by visiting NetBenefits.®

Additional information about the Annual Increase Program

Eligibility requirements.

To participate in the program, you must be contributing regularly to your workplace savings plan through payroll deductions. If you stop making regular payroll deductions, your annual increase elections will be maintained on the system until conditions change to allow for the application of your elections.

After I sign up, when does the increased contribution go into effect?

Your Annual Increase Program elections will take effect as soon as administratively feasible. Therefore, depending on the frequency of your paycheck, it takes a minimum of one to two pay periods for the election to take effect.

Program elections.

In most circumstances, your increase election will be applied on a pretax basis. If your employer allows Roth deductions, in limited circumstances your election may be applied on a Roth basis.

Exceptions to program elections.

Your Annual Increase Program elections will be applied until you withdraw from the program, subject to the following exceptions:

- Plan or statutory limits. If you are close to or over the maximum percentage or dollar amount that you are allowed to contribute to your retirement plan, none or only some of your increase amount will be applied on your designated increase date. However, if you have made a "spillover" election to continue contributions on an after-tax basis, your annual increase election may be applied for the remainder of the plan year.

- Suspension of plan contributions. If you are suspended from making contributions to your plan due to certain plan rules, your program increase will also be suspended. Depending on plan rules, your election may or may not be reinstated at the end of the suspension period.
- Highly compensated employees (HCEs). If your designation as an HCE limits or otherwise restricts you from making additional contributions, your contributions may not be increased even if you have elected to participate in the program.
- Change in employment status. If your deductions are interrupted due to a change in your employment status such as a leave of absence or disability, your program elections will be held on file. It's a good idea to confirm that you are still enrolled in the program when your deductions begin again.

Please consult your plan rules for more detailed information. If you have questions, please call your plan's toll-free number or log on to NetBenefits.®

What is the Roth 401(k) Contribution Option?

A Roth contribution is available to employees who participate in the 401(k) plan. For payroll purposes, Roth contributions are treated as after tax. This feature will allow participants to make Roth contributions to their plan while taking their earnings completely tax-free at retirement—as long as the withdrawal is a qualified one. A qualified withdrawal is one that can be taken five tax years after the year of the first Roth contribution and after the participant has attained age 59½, has become disabled, or has died.

If you qualify to make traditional 401(k) contributions, you are eligible for a Roth 401(k) contribution.

How does a Roth 401(k) contribution option work?

You elect an amount of your salary that you wish to contribute to the Roth source, just as you would for your traditional 401(k). The contribution is based on your eligible compensation, not on your net pay — for example, if your total annual eligible compensation is $40,000 per year and you elect a 6% deferral amount, then $2,400 per year would go into your Roth 401(k) account.

Unlike your traditional 401(k) pretax contribution, with a Roth 401(k) contribution, you pay the taxes now on the contributions you make—but later your earnings are all tax-free, if you meet certain criteria.

Example: Sally earns $40,000 and has elected to put 6% toward her Roth 401(k) contributions and 6% toward her traditional 401(k) pretax contributions on a monthly basis.

	ROTH 401(k)*	TRADITIONAL 401(k)*
Sally's monthly contribution into each account	$200	$200
Sally's reduction in take-home pay	$200	$156

*This hypothetical example is based solely on an assumed federal income tax rate of 22%. No other payroll deductions are taken into account. Your own results will be based on your individual tax situation.

Your combined Roth and traditional pretax 401(k) contributions cannot exceed the IRS limits for the year.

Would a Roth 401(k) contribution option benefit me?

The potential benefits of Roth 401(k) contributions really depend on your personal situation, but are mainly focused on your existing tax rate and your anticipated tax rate at the time of retirement. If you are contributing to a Roth, you are giving up a tax break today for a tax break in the future.

Therefore, a Roth contribution might benefit you if your tax rate in retirement were higher than it had been during the years you contributed.

If your tax rate were lower in retirement, then a traditional 401(k) might be more beneficial to you than the Roth option. Talk with a tax professional for more information on how to determine if Roth 401(k) contributions are right for you.

Is a traditional pretax 401(k) still beneficial?

Yes. For many participants, a traditional pretax 401(k) will still be the most beneficial type of retirement savings plan. We do not know what the future holds regarding tax rates. Therefore, it is not possible to predict with certainty which type of 401(k) savings will be most beneficial to a participant.

Remember, because Roth 401(k) contributions are made after tax, you may take home less money in your paycheck than you would if you contributed to a traditional pretax 401(k).

Request a direct rollover distribution from your previous eligible retirement plan. See the Rollover Contribution Form for a list of the types of plans or accounts from which rollovers may be made to your employer's plan. There are two distribution check payable options:

Option 1.

The check can be made payable to Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company LLC (or FIIOC), for the benefit of (YOUR NAME). The check must be from the distributing trustee or custodian. (Personal checks are not acceptable.)

Note: This type of distribution avoids automatic income tax withholding. Also, it avoids the possible 10% early withdrawal penalty if you are under the age of 59 ½.

Option 2.

If the distribution was originally made payable directly to you, you must send your rollover contribution to Fidelity via a certified check or money order only for the amount you are rolling over. (Personal checks are not acceptable.)

Note: If your distribution is initially received as a check made payable to you, your rollover must be completed within 60 days of receipt of the distribution. Your previous administrator will be required to withhold income taxes. As a result, you will not be able to roll over 100% of your eligible distribution unless you have extra savings available to make up the amount withheld. You must also roll over that amount within 60 days of receipt of your distribution. If you do not make up the amount withheld, that amount will be considered a withdrawal from the previous program and the taxable portion will be subject to ordinary income taxes and possibly a 10% early withdrawal penalty.

Fidelity does not accept wire transfers of funds. You must request a CHECK from your previous plan or IRA.

The check should be mailed directly to you. Once you have received the check, please follow the directions in Step 2.

Step 2. Initiate your rollover request

Please log on to NetBenefits® at www.netbenefits.com/atwork or the NetBenefits mobile app which you can get with the below QR code to initiate your request or complete the Incoming Rollover Contribution Form. Please be sure to complete all items, and sign the form if indicated.

Mobile App QR code:

Failing to properly complete the process will result in your transaction not being processed and your check being returned to you. This form and any separate documentation required by your Plan Sponsor will be reviewed through an automated process. Fidelity will not consider or act upon any unrequested documentation or any information provided outside the areas of the form where specific information has been requested.

Please Note: This rollover contribution will be invested based on the investment elections you have on file for rollover contributions to the Plan. If you have not made investment elections for rollover contributions, this amount will be invested in the Plan-designated default investment option. If you wish to make investment elections for your rollover contribution, please do so via NetBenefits or by contacting Fidelity Investments prior to submitting this form.

If you are not sure of the plan type that you are rolling out of, please contact your previous plan sponsor or IRA custodian for verification. An incorrect plan type could invalidate your rollover.

Step 3. Mail the information

Mail (1) the Incoming Rollover Contribution Application and (2) the check to:

FIRST CLASS MAIL WITH STAMP:

Fidelity Investments
Client Service Operations
P.O. Box 770003
Cincinnati, OH 45277-0065

Overnight Address:

Fidelity Investments
Client Service Operations (KC1F-L)
100 Crosby Parkway
Covington, KY 41015

Please include all the information requested. Incomplete forms and the accompanying check will be returned to you and may jeopardize your ability to roll over your distribution.

Once your contribution is accepted into the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan, you can log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.netbenefits.com/atwork to view your rollover contribution and investment election(s). Please allow at least seven business days for processing. If you have any questions about rollover contributions, call 1-800-835-5095. Please be sure you have beneficiary information for the Plan on file.

To establish or change your beneficiary information for the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan, please access www.netbenefits.com/atwork.

You should make a copy of the check and the Incoming Contribution Application for your records.

Section Two: Rollover Contribution Information

Acceptable rollover sources

The Plan will accept taxable money* from the following types of employer-sponsored plans: 401(a) plans (e.g., 401(k)); governmental 457(b) plans; 403(b) plans (e.g., plans of tax-exempt organizations); distributions of taxable monies made to you as a spousal beneficiary from a current or former spouse from these types of plans, or an alternate payee pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order (QDRO). In addition, the Plan will accept: conduit IRAs (rollover IRAs), and Roth 401(k).

* Taxable money is defined as pretax contributions (employee and employer), earnings on pretax contributions, and taxable earnings on after-tax contributions from your previous employer's plan.

Please provide the following information concerning the origin of this rollover: Plan name: _____

- 401(k) Plan, Governmental 457(b) Plan, Conduit IRA (rollover IRA), 401(a) Plan, Roth 401(a)/401(k) Plan, Non-Conduit IRA, 403(b) Plan, Roth 403(b) Plan

Unacceptable rollover sources

The Plan cannot accept money from the following sources: 403(a) plans; rollovers from beneficiary accounts (other than from a spouse), payments over a life expectancy or a period of 10 or more years, or mandatory age 72* distributions. Also unacceptable are non-conduit IRAs (traditional IRAs, Simplified Employee Pension plans (SEP-IRAs) and "SIMPLE" IRA distributions). In-kind distributions of employer stock are not acceptable; therefore, stock must be sold and the proceeds (including any appreciation realized through the date of distribution) may be rolled over.

* The change in the MRD age requirement from 70½ to 72 only applies to individuals who turn 70½ on or after January 1, 2020. Please speak with your tax advisor regarding the impact of this change on future MRDs.

Section Three: Investment Elections

I direct Fidelity to invest my rollover contribution into my current investment mix applicable to rollover contributions. If I have not selected an investment mix on my own via NetBenefits® or by telephone, I understand that this rollover contribution will be invested in the Plan's default investment option as directed by my employer.

To make an investment election or to request a fund prospectus please log on to www.netbenefits.com/atwork.

Section Four: Participant Certification

I authorize the investment election for this rollover and acknowledge that I have received information detailing my available investment options. I acknowledge that my rollover contribution will be invested according to the investment election on file at Fidelity. I also acknowledge that if I do not already have investment elections on file at Fidelity, my rollover contribution will be invested in my plan's default investment option.

I certify that this rollover amount is composed ONLY of money from acceptable sources listed under Section Two, and I have completed the information regarding the source of this money to the best of my knowledge. Also, if the distribution check was made payable to me, I understand that this rollover must be received and deposited to my account within 60 days of receipt of the distribution. I understand that, once invested, these monies will be subject to the terms that govern the ZOLL Medical Corporation Employee Savings Plan.
