FOR CONVERSION OF GROUP TERM LIFE INSURANCE
TO AN INDIVIDUAL WHOLE LIFE POLICY

Underwritten by
Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA)

Life Insurance Company of North America

Your Rights Upon Termination or Reduction of Your Life Insurance

Conversion Privilege

Your group life insurance policy contains a conversion privilege. This means that if your group life insurance ends due to termination of employment or termination of membership in an eligible class under the group policy, you have a right to purchase an individual whole life insurance policy, with an amount of life insurance not exceeding the amount of group life insurance which has terminated.

You do not need to provide proof of good health. However, you must apply for this policy, and pay the first premium, within 31 days of the date that your group life insurance ended.

This policy will be an individual whole life insurance policy. This policy is noncancellable, and premium rates are guaranteed. Premium rates are based on your age when you purchase the individual policy and do not increase as you get older. The policy will, if it is kept in force, build cash value, which can be used for policy loans, or to provide a reduced amount of life insurance that is paid-up (i.e. no further premium payments are required).

Portability

Your group life insurance policy may also provide for a portability feature, which allows for group term life insurance to be continued on a direct bill basis, if your life insurance ends due to termination of employment or membership in an eligible class. Premium rates are based on our claim experience for all former employees continuing life insurance through portability and are generally higher than premium rates charged for active employees under the group policy. Initial premium rates are generally lower than initial premium rates for an individual whole life insurance policy issued under the conversion privilege, but are not guaranteed, and will increase with age. This insurance is term life insurance, which does not build cash value.

Please read your certificate of insurance to find out if your group life insurance policy provides this portability feature, and how much life insurance can be continued. If your group life insurance policy provides for portability, you must choose whether to exercise this portability right, or to purchase an individual whole life insurance policy. You cannot choose both, unless the group policy permits portability for only part of the group life insurance coverage (e.g., voluntary life insurance), in which case you can choose portability to the extent it is permitted, and convert the rest of the terminating life insurance to an individual policy.

What If My Life Insurance Is Reduced?

If your group life insurance coverage is reduced due to a change in eligible class (e.g., from active employee to retiree), or due to age, you may be able to convert the amount of coverage that was lost to an individual whole life insurance policy.

Please refer to your certificate of insurance to see if the coverage lost due to reductions in life insurance is allowed to be converted.

Portability is only available if your employment terminates, or if your life insurance ends due to loss of eligibility. Portability is not permitted for reductions of group life insurance.

What If the Group Policy Is Terminated Or Amended?

If your group life insurance ends because the group policy has been terminated or amended, you may have a right to convert a portion of the life insurance to an individual whole life insurance policy. Generally, the amount of life insurance that can be converted is limited to $10,000 and is only available to employees who were insured under the group policy (or another group policy issued to the same employer) for three years or more. Please refer to your certificate of insurance for details.

If the terminated group life insurance is replaced within 31 days, the amount of life insurance that you can convert will not exceed the amount by which group life insurance was reduced, if any. For example, if your employer terminates its New York Life Group Benefit Solutions (NYL GBS) life insurance policy and replaces it with another group life insurance policy that provides an equal or greater amount of life insurance, the conversion privilege is not available.

Portability is not available if coverage ends due to termination or amendment of the group insurance policy.

What If My Life Insurance Has Been Continued Under The Group Insurance Policy's Waiver of Premium Feature?

Some group life insurance policies provide that group life insurance may be continued for totally disabled employees under the waiver of premium feature. This coverage will end when you reach a maximum age limit (usually, age 65), or fail to provide proof that you continue to be disabled. If your continued group life insurance ends due to one of these reasons, you can convert to an individual whole life insurance policy. The application process is the same, except that, you will receive the applications with a letter from New York Life Claims.

How Long Do I Have To Convert?

You have limited time. You must apply within the later of 31 days from your coverage end date along with your application and applicable fees for any associated premium payment, or 15 days from the date of your notification, provided by your Employer in the Employer Section of your application.

However, under no circumstances will the 15 day extension go beyond 91 days from your coverage end date.

If your group life insurance policy includes the portability feature, that right may be exercised during the same period of time in which you have to exercise the conversion privilege.

What About My Dependents?

The right to convert group life insurance to an individual whole life policy is also available to your insured dependent spouse and children, in the following circumstances:

1. Your group life insurance ends.
2. Your spouse's group life insurance ends due to divorce, annulment, legal separation, or reaching the age limit in the group policy.
3. A dependent child's coverage ends due to reaching the maximum eligibility age provided for in the policy (e.g., age 26), or otherwise no longer being eligible for group life insurance. (Refer to your certificate of insurance to see when a dependent child's coverage ends.)
4. Your spouse's or a dependent child's coverage ends due to your death.

Each person (you, your spouse, or your dependent children) who is eligible to convert will need to complete a separate application and will be issued his or her own individual whole life insurance policy.

A dependent's right to purchase an individual whole life insurance policy must be exercised within 31 days of termination of group life insurance.

The group life insurance policy may provide that dependents will have the right to exercise the portability feature. Please refer to your certificate of insurance to see if this option is available. If this option is provided:

1. If you choose to exercise the portability feature due to termination of your employment, or membership in an eligible class, you may also choose to insure any dependents (spouse or children) who were insured when your group life insurance ended.
2. Your spouse may choose to exercise the portability feature if his or her life insurance ends due to divorce, annulment or legal separation.
3. Each dependent child whose life insurance ends due to reaching the age limit (or otherwise no longer being eligible for group life insurance, e.g., due to marriage) can choose to exercise the portability feature for himself or herself.
4. If your spouse's group life insurance ends due to your death, your spouse may continue life insurance for himself or herself, and may also continue insurance for any dependent children who were insured under the group policy on your date of death.

How Much Does This Life Insurance Cost? And How Do I Apply?

A table of rates, premium calculation worksheet and application, for the individual whole life insurance policy is included with this brochure.

Each insured must complete, sign and date a separate application for conversion of Group Life Insurance. You must calculate your insurance age and premium for the amount you selected. (See the instructions for calculating your insurance age and premium, included in this booklet.)

If your group life insurance policy includes a portability feature, you should have also been provided a table of rates for continuing group life insurance. Please note, these rates are generally higher than premium rates under the policy for active employees.

If your certificate of insurance includes the portability feature, but a portability application was not provided to you, please contact your employer.

Please note that the application includes a section that must be completed by your employer. This may have been filled out by your employer before it was given to you. It is preferred to have this section completed by your Employer, prior to submission, however if that is not an option, please go ahead and submit the application. If you received a cover letter from a NYL GBS claim or customer service center, or your former employer, please provide that letter along with your application.

Please submit the completed application(s), and the initial quarterly premium payment(s) made payable to Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA), to the address shown below by the deadline. Payments should be made via check or money order, we cannot accept cash.

How Long Can This Life Insurance Be Continued In Force?

If you purchase an individual whole life insurance policy under the conversion privilege, that policy can be continued in force for your lifetime, or age 100, provided that you pay premiums when due. The premiums will not increase, and coverage will not reduce due to age.

If you continue life insurance under the portability feature, coverage can generally be continued in force until you reach age 70, provided that you pay premiums when due. Coverage may reduce due to age, if provided for by the group policy. In most cases, if you have continued group life insurance under the group policy, it may be continued even after the group policy has terminated. However, if the group policy provides that continued group life insurance will end if the group policy is terminated, you will have a right to purchase an individual whole life insurance policy under the conversion privilege at that time. Please refer to your certificate of insurance for specific information.

To Whom Will Life Insurance Benefits Be Paid?

Each applicant must designate a new life insurance beneficiary (or beneficiaries) when you convert to an individual whole life insurance policy, or exercise the right to portability. Any beneficiary designation which you made under the group life insurance policy will not automatically carry forward. Space to designate beneficiaries is included in the conversion and portability applications.

When Does Converted or Continued Insurance Go Into Effect? What Happens If I Die Before Then?

If you purchase an individual whole life insurance policy under the conversion privilege, that policy will go into effect on the 32nd day after your group life insurance ends. This is the effective date (and premiums will start as of that date) whether you apply early, or if you apply after 31 days but before the deadline.

If you die during the first 31 days after your group life insurance ends, the group life insurance policy provides that a death benefit will be paid, to your beneficiary (or beneficiaries) in effect under the group life insurance policy. The amount of this death benefit will be the amount that you could have converted. (Depending on the reason that you are eligible to convert, this might be less than the amount of life insurance that was provided to you under the group life insurance policy.) This death benefit will end 31 days after your group life insurance ends, even if your deadline to convert has been extended based on when you received this brochure or other written notice.

If you instead choose to exercise the portability feature, you will be required to pay premiums from the first of the month following the date that your group life insurance eligibility ended.

Instructions for Calculating Your Insurance Age and Premium

After you have selected the amount of insurance you wish to convert, you can calculate your Insurance Age and premium using the example below:

Calculate your Insurance Age:

1. Determine the effective date of your new policy, which is usually 31 days immediately following your termination of your group life insurance coverage.
2. The age you will be six months from the effective of the new whole life insurance policy is your "Insurance Age". If your birthday falls within that six-month period, you must add one year to your present age, otherwise use your present age.

For example:

a) Date of Birth:	March 1, 1973
b) Age in March 2023:	50
c) Date Group Insurance Ended:	November 14, 2023
d) Effective Date of New Policy:	December 15, 2023
e) Your Age Six Months from December 15, 2023	June 15, 2024
= Insurance Age	51

3. To determine your annual premium rate, first determine your "Insurance Age" as defined in step 2. Then refer to the rate table included in this document.
4. Calculate your premium using the below worksheet.

Calculate Your Premium:

1. Number of $1,000 units of insurance being converted, up to the amount terminating under your group life insurance policy (e.g., $11,500 equals 11.5) _____
2. Enter the rate per Unit for Your Insurance Age
• Use the rate table found later in this brochure _____
3. Annual Premium...Multiply (1) X (2) _____
4. Annual Policy Administration Fee _____
5. Annual Payment...Add (3) & (4) _____
6. Enter the appropriate payment frequency factor:
Annual Payment            x 1.00
Semi-Annual Payment    x 0.50
Quarterly Payment        x 0.25
_____
7. Total Payment Due .... Multiply (5) x (6) _____

This is your total initial payment amount due. Send a check or money order for this amount payable to Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA).

Monthly payments are also available by using the Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) option. An automatic monthly deduction would be made from your personal checking account to pay your premiums. If you are interested in this option, please indicate "yes" in the space provided on the application form. An authorization form will be sent to you upon receipt of your application. Your initial payment must be for at least the quarterly amount and must be included with your application.

Examples:

Step	Age 60 $22,000 Face Annual Payment	Age 49 $53,000 Face Semiannual Payment	Age 36 $8,500 Face Quarterly Payment
1	22	53	8.5
2	$51.24	$29.52	$16.32
3	$1,127.28	$1,564.56	$138.72
4	$100.00	$100.00	$100.00
5	$1,227.28	$1,664.56	$238.72
6	1.00	.50	.25
7	$1,227.28	$832.28	$59.68

Special Notes:

- If you were covered for Basic and Supplemental Life Insurance and you are converting both benefit amounts, add the two amounts together and indicate the total amount on the application. Only one Individual Whole Life insurance policy will be issued.
- The Annual Policy Administration Fee is an annual fee which is included in the calculation of your payment.
- You cannot elect more coverage than you had under the group, and you cannot increase your Individual Whole Life Policy, once issued.

Checklist:

- Did you calculate your correct Insurance Age?
- Did you indicate the amount of insurance you wish to convert?
- Did you double-check your premium calculation and indicate the mode of payment?
- Did you designate your Beneficiary(ies)?
- Has each Insured signed and dated their own conversion application and included their initial payment?
- Please have your Employer complete the Employer Verification & Notice of Right to Convert located at the end of this brochure.
